Course Description

Students enrolled in Orton-Gillingham Tutoring will meet between 8:00am – 3:30pm in individual or leveled groups of no more than 2 students after assessments are completed.

Each tutoring session will last 45 minutes weekly and the teacher will be using the Orton-Gillingham approach. The tutoring will be done in individual or small group sessions determined by students' reading levels, with no more than 2 students per small group. New students will need to attend an assessment time before the tutoring begins to determine their reading level and determine which leveled small group tutoring time they will be assigned. Once a tutoring spot becomes available for your student, you will be connected to a Reading Tutor who can set up a time to assess your child.

During the Orton-Gillingham approach, a student is taught reading, spelling, handwriting, and expressive writing as a whole body. The Orton-Gillingham approach is a multi-sensory approach and each phonetic unit and sequence in spoken and/or graphic form is learned through hearing, speaking, seeing, and writing; these skills are learned and practiced simultaneously in coordination with one another. The teacher teaches the student small doses of the language in 45 minutes tutoring sessions and connects their new learning to their prior knowledge of what they have already learned. The tutor will monitor skill development for each student. The lessons are built upon what is observed in the previous lesson and what is seen to be necessary to move the child forward in the next lesson. This tutoring will not serve as the student's daily reading program. It will be a supplement to the instruction already occurring at home.

To be successful in this class:

Students must be actively working on a reading curriculum and practicing reading daily with their teaching parent. Tutors recommend using All about Reading and All about Spelling curriculum. Orton Gillingham Reading Tutoring should be viewed as an intervention to supplement what parents are doing at home. This tutoring time will be centered on Orton-Gillingham mini lessons focusing on certain reading skills/errors that are needed based on each small group reading needs and there will not be time in a 45 minutes weekly session to teach all reading skills comprehensively.

Parents must agree to:

- Purchase the required materials needed for the class
- Teach reading instruction on a daily basis with the student.
- Review content that is covered from weekly updates from tutor.

The OG tutor will:

- Teach new concepts and provide guided practice in class once a week.
- Provide support and suggestions for parents to use for reading and spelling at home.

Students NOT Enrolled in All Day Co-op Classes: Families from the community who do not plan to have their student enrolled in a regular, full day UHC Elementary co-op class, may enroll their student at UHC for Orton-Gillingham Reading Tutoring only. The annual student enrollment fee will be assessed to your account, in addition to the tuition for the tutoring, as is UHC's policy.
